RE: Resolution waiving certain time provisions in settlement agreements

Dear Chair Anderson:

At a duly-noticed public meeting held on 7/1/2020, with a quorum present, Advisory Neighborhood Commission 1C passed the attached resolution by a vote of 7-0-0 supporting a temporary waiver of certain time provisions in settlement agreements.

Warm regards,

Amir Irani
Chairperson, ANC 1C

Resolution Waiving Certain Time Provisions in Settlement Agreements

Whereas, ANC 1C is party to numerous Settlement Agreements with on-premises alcohol licensees; and

Whereas, many of those licensees have experienced significant financial impact from closures and limitations imposed to meet the challenges of the coronavirus pandemic;

Now, therefore, ANC 1C hereby resolves:

That the DC ABC Board allow all of our Settlement Agreements to be temporarily modified in the "Hours of Operation Inside" sections and either "Summer Garden" and/or "Sidewalk Cafe" sections to conform with the hours of operation of 8 am until 12:00 midnight allowed under the Mayor's Emergency Orders and the Board's 4th Emergency Rulemaking of May 28, 2020 Section 23DCMR 810.2 (i); and the Board's June 19, 2020 5th Emergency Rulemaking 23 DCMR 1007.2 (j), which also define hours of operation as 8 am until 12:00 midnight; and 23DCMR 1007.6 which allows parties to Settlement Agreements to waive provisions, which sections expire on October 17, 2020, unless superseded.

The express purpose of this resolution is to allow any limitations on hours for the above listed sections of our Settlement Agreements to be waived to allow any on-premise retailer with which we have an agreement to take greater advantage of the hours between 8 am and 12 midnight if they so desire.
